Big Bombers Pound Enemy Positions
By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SAIGON (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers pounded North Vietnamese positions inside the demilitarized zone today for the first time in two months.
The giant bombers, each carrying 50,000 pounds of explosives, made three raids during the day on the northern half of the six-mile-wide zone between North and South Vietnam.
Their targets were the fortifications and artillery positions from which the North Vietnamese have been inflicting a heavy toll on U.S. Marine and South Vietnamese units just below the zone.
This toll was reflected in weekly casualty figures announced today which showed 282 Americans killed last week, the third highest death count for a seven-day period this year. But the U.S. Command said 2,114 Communist troops were killed last week, nearly double the 1,331 reported killed the week before and the highest enemy weekly toll in a month.
It was also reported that 1,170 U.S. servicemen were wounded and one was missing last week. South Vietnamese casualties were 158 killed, 460 wounded and 29 missing.
The U.S. Command reported an increase of 1,000 men last week in the number of American troops in South Vietnam, raising the total of 465,000. The strength of other foreign allied forces remained at 54,000 and the estimate of enemy strength also was unchanged at 296,000.
The B52 raids on the demilitarized zone highlighted a day of otherwise light action in South Vietnam.
In the meantime, U.S. Marines made a 10-day ground sweep inside the zone in late May and small tactical bombers have pounded enemy artillery positions inside and just above the zone almost daily. In resuming the B52 strikes, U.S. commanders apparently felt the risk of missiles had been removed or greatly reduced.

Surveyor 4 Problems Are Solved
By JIM STROTHMAN
AP Aerospace Writer
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Trouble-shooting technicians today successfully solved a rocket problem which grounded America's Surveyor 4 launch for 24 hours and were flashed an "all clear" to send the spacecraft moonward Friday.
"The problem has been solved," a National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said. "Additional tests will be run today, but we don't anticipate any more trouble."
Surveyor 4's scheduled launch today was abandoned late Wednesday night after crews failed to eliminate an electrical short in the upper stage of Surveyor's Atlas-Centaur rocket. The trouble prevented a valve in Centaur's fuel-mixing system from operating properly.
The cause of the short was a loose electrical connector located in an area which was not accessible with Surveyor 4 attached to the rocket.

DREAM HOME OR NIGHTMARE? Whatever it is, it's for sale. Sausalito, Calif., sculptor David Brooks—he's the one catching a bit of sun—built this floating home for his family out of a Navy landing barge and plywood. It contains a studio, large bedroom and multipurpose room. Now that he's decided to move to Africa, Brooks has put his creation on the market—with a $10,000 price tag.

Moss Denies Receiving Any Money
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Former Welfare Commissioner A. J. Moss said Wednesday he never received $3,000 from the Arkansas Association of Public Welfare Workers as a member of the state Welfare Board charged Wednesday.
Mrs. Annie Zachary of Marvell made the charge at a meeting of the Welfare Board and urged Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock to investigate.
"It's a puzzle to me why the administration continues the policy of persecution when I've taken absolutely no part in state matters since leaving," Moss said.
Mrs. Zachary was appointed to the board by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. She presented seven motions to the board Wednesday.
Moss, who resigned as Welfare Commissioner earlier this year to take over as director of the Federal Housing Administration office in Little Rock, said it was obvious the resolutions were made by a "person motivated by the administration."
He pointed out that none of the resolutions were seconded by board members. He said it was an attempt to discredit him because he was a part of the administration of former Gov. Orval Faubus.
"I think they would do well to clear up their own situations before accusing anyone else since I know they have two illegal appointments on county boards in Conway and Sebastian counties," Moss said.
Mrs. Zachary also said John H. Keech, whom she said is Moss' son-in-law, had been on the Welfare Department payroll from September 1966 until sometime in April 1967 but that he had "never performed any duties for the department and was enrolled at the University of Iowa."
She asked that the board ask the attorney general's office to attempt to recover money paid Keech.
Moss said he had been told Keech had applied for educational leave and that the application had been approved. Mrs. Zachary said Keech was never authorized educational leave by the Educational Leave Committee.
Mrs. Zachary, in other motions, called for a "full-scale" investigation of the Arkansas Merit System; asked that Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock place Carl Stobough in a "position he is qualified for"; asked the board to request Blaylock take steps to remove "the political cancer that has existed in the Welfare Department"; asked the board to ask the attorney general's office to attempt to recover "the money that was paid to Roy Hawkins while he served as welfare director of Madison County on a falsified transcript"; and asked the board to establish regular, quarterly meetings.
On another subject Blaylock said he would have to take a second look before deciding whether to make the appointment of Mrs. Geraldine Pullam as Greene County welfare director permanent.

U.S. SENDING (From Page One)
increases in manpower. But he said he did not know when a new force level decision would be reached.
He said 450,000 to 460,000 U.S. troops now are in Vietnam. President Johnson, the military believes, is faced with basically three considerations.
"We can assume there will be no more forces—but at a cost of slowing the momentum of the war," one ranking officer said.
"We can restore the momentum with one division." This would fill gaps left when about 15,000 Army troops are pulled northward to back up Marines battling intensified Communist thrusts along the DMZ.
"We can step up the pace with forces beyond that." The unfortunate part is that we can't predict as to the duration or termination of the war under any of those three options.
This officer, whose views may be indicative of the military recommendations to President Johnson, said the United States "could profitably employ" as many as five additional divisions in South Vietnam.
This would carry the manpower level up 200,000.
There is, however, no great optimism among military men about the likelihood of getting anywhere near 200,000 in the next 12 months. Two divisions—75,000 or so men—appear to be the more likely total. The Army training structure has the capacity to train up to 90,000 men for Vietnam in the next 12 months if draft calls are increased.
In addition to replacing relocated troops with one division, military planners would deploy another division numbering perhaps 45,000 men in Vietnam's Central Highlands.
Its mission would be to seal off Communist infiltration into South Vietnam's Kontum Province along the country's boundary with Cambodia and Laos.
Other combat units could be used near the DMZ "to help," as this officer expressed it, "share the pounding" currently being dealt the Marines by North Vietnamese ground and artillery units.
There is also the question of whether to send sizable manpower into the Mekong Delta where the Viet Cong number is estimated at 80,000.

Wants County Officials to Organize
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Crawford County Judge Milton Willis said Wednesday that the newly formed executive committee composed of county officials should attempt to perfect a state organization before Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller calls a special session of the legislature.
"It is vital for the organization to be perfected because the special session will have things concerning county government in its call," Willis said.
The executive committee was named Wednesday. The purpose of the state group will be to aid with situations concerning county government.
Mississippi County Judge A. A. Banks, president of the Arkansas County Judges Association, will be chairman of the executive committee. He said the new organization would serve as a coordinating body and clearing house for all county elected officials' organizations.
Other members of the executive committee and the organizations they represent are Frank Mackey of Little Rock, sheriff; Paul Shefferd of Malvern, circuit clerk; R. S. Peters of Little Rock, county clerk; James Sullivan of Crossett, county assessors, and Charles H. Benefield of Lonoke, county treasurers.
William Jennings Bryan made the Cross of Gold speech.

Man's Body Identified by Sheriff
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pulaski County Sheriff Frank Mackey said Wednesday that a body found June 24 between some double railroad tracks outside the Little Rock city limits was that of Allison Barr Ensley, 34.
Mackey said the man's billfold contained identification papers with that name and that the FBI in Washington had verified the identification through fingerprints. Mackey said the man would be buried in a Little Rock cemetery but that no relatives have been located.
Mackey said the man had a current Oklahoma commercial chauffeur's license.

TWO SHOWERS FOR RECENT BRIDE

Recently two bridal showers were given for Miss Susan Pierce, who has since become the bride of Jimmy Johnson. On June 29 Mrs. Ted Purtle and Mrs. Paul Church were hostesses for a party in the Purtle home. The honoree was attired in a white dress and pinned a yellow corsage at her shoulder. Her mother, Mrs. John R. Pierce, and her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Fred Johnson, were each given white carnation corsages.

The group of 25 friends wrote their favorite recipes for the future bride. Those present included Mrs. John H. Pierce of Searcy, the honoree's sister-in-law. From an attractive table with a bridal centerpiece the hostesses served punch and cake squares.

Many lovely and useful gifts were presented to Miss Pierce at the shower held in the Purtle home and at one on July 3 in the Grover Thompson home. At the latter entertainment the hostesses were Misses Barbara Jo Thompson and Sherry Dickinson.

The guest of honor wore an orange suit trimmed in yellow and mothers of the couple, Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Johnson, were also given yellow rose corsages.

After the presentation of gifts, the 20 friends made rice bags for the future bride's wedding. The hostesses served punch and cake squares.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. MICHAEL JONES

Marriage vows of Miss Yvonne Koenigseder and Michael Darwin Jones were pledged Saturday morning, June 24th at the Immaculate Conception in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Koenigseder of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Jones of Mineral Springs, Arkansas.

The Rev. James R. Savary officiated at the nuptial ceremony and Mrs. Bill Lensing, organist, and Mrs. August M. Harder, Jr., soloist, presented the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown fashioned of peau de sole and Alencon lace and featuring a detachable triple-type train edged in scalloped lace. The lace encrusted bodice had a scalloped neckline etched with pearls, long tapered sleeves and a crescent waistline. The A-line skirt was accented by a lace panel down the front. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell to waist length from a forward headpiece of Alencon and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and pompon mums, and a nosegay of small white flowers which she placed on the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

The bride's attendants were Miss Barbara Flinn, maid-of-honor, and Miss Sherry Baldwin, bridesmaid. They were attired in identical floor length dresses of melon silk shantung designed with a bateau neckline, fitted bodice and empire waistline defined by satin banding. They wore matching satin bows and tulle headpieces and carried bouquets of picardy tinted pompons.

The flower girls, Suzanne Felder and Patricia Lynn Ewing were dressed in floor touching frocks of dotted swiss in a light-er shade of melon, made with an empire waist. Their flowers were small shrimp color mums.

Larry Hartsfield of Fayetteville was best man for the bridegroom and Joel Jones, the bridegroom's brother was groomsmen. Ushers were Jim Sanders of Okay and Hix Smith of Nashville.

The bride's mother wore a pink walking suit of summer knit accented with lace. Her costume was enhanced with white accessories. Her corsage of carnations featured the bride's colors of white and pink. The groom's mother chose an aqua costume of summer knit accented with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Rice bags were passed out by Janice Jones, sister of the groom. She wore a powder blue flocked organza dress which featured three quarter sleeves accented with rows of white lace.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Goldman Hotel. Miss Judy Hill presided at the guest book and serving as hostesses were Miss Sue Swaim, Miss Susie Grammont and Mrs. Collins Lane.

On their return from a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will go to Fayetteville where he will continue his work toward a Master's degree in agriculture engineering and foodprocessing at the University of Arkansas. Mrs. Jones was graduated from St. Edward Mercy Hospital School of Nursing with the June 1967 class.

Byrns, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clark, and Mrs. C.M. Junell, all of Mineral Springs, Arkansas, Mrs. Larry Hartsfield of Fayetteville and Miss Glenda White of Nashville, Arkansas.

HELEN HELP US!

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!
This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.
Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

HIPPIES ANSWER BACK

Dear Helen: I would like to say something to this "open-minded cuss - CLOSE-IN OBSERVER. Please print it to show you aren't prejudiced against Hippies.

Everything he wrote is lies except when he said Hippies "want to save the world through love."

Hippies did not ask for all the publicity they're getting. They hate it. Newspapers have completely ruined the Haight-Ashbury (San Francisco). Now it's filled with gawking tourists, whos, prostitutes, pseudo-Hippies, pseudo-Hells Angels. It was a beautiful place two years ago, with beautiful people in it. Now the majority of true Hippies are moving to the hill country to be closer to nature, though there are still some good people in H-A.

Hippies are not "failures." They just don't want to get caught up in the hectic 9-5 way of living, with all its phyness. OB-SERVER might say, "They are ruining our economy. They don't work, they're lazy, all they do is smoke pot, take LSD and make love." I ask you - what's wrong with that? He should try it some time.

These teens who run away from Ashbury probably do more growing up than some kid who has been tied to his mother's apron strings for 15 years. (Note from H: No lie! Complete with VD, bad trips, and a "dope record" that keeps him unemployed.)

Hippies don't "exist" as "live-in hoboes." They're "being." There's a difference, you know. So what if it is a Peter Pan life. We know how to live. - WENDY

Dear Wendy: Tell me more five years from now, when you're a has-been Hippie with no place to go. "Being" is fine and noble, but if you really wanted to "save the world through love," you'd "do" more than drop out of it. Now don't get wrong, I think that some of what the Hippies stand for has merit: brotherhood, simple values, honesty, an end to fighting. The movement may possible shake adults into viewing themselves as young people see them - which would do wonders for the communication gap.

BUT... if adults who turn the wheels and pay the bills went Hippie, the Hippies would soon learn man does not live by flowers and bells alone, nor can he long survive on idealism minus common sense.

It's "beautiful" - after "love," your favorite word - when you young thinkers toss around Hippie talk, but don't sell yourselves short for a mess of pot. Focus your idealism on bettering the world, not running from it. If you'd demonstrate love - join the Peace Corps or Vistal - H.

Dear Helen:

People laugh and sneer at the

Page Three
Hippies because they don't understand them. It takes a lot of courage to be a Hippie because so many people knock them. Maybe they look funny to you, but have you ever thought how funny and ridiculous these money-mad, status-seeking, cocktail-swilling, chain-smoking "organization" people look to them? Hippies work just long enough to get enough money to live on. They aren't "bums," they're smart.

The big reason society is against Hippies is that it is afraid they are going to teach it something about life and peace, and real enjoyment.

No, we aren't Hippies. We go to school and live with our parents who are against Hippies, true, but still understand what they're trying to say and stick up for them. -SMITTY AND MARCUS

Dear Helen: The scary part about Hippies is it gives teens a place to run away to, instead of staying home and facing up to their troubles. As you said, it sounds like all kinds of fun and no problems in "never-never" land. By the time they wake up and see the grimness and hopelessness of it all, they may have lost out on education, health and their future. The VD rate among these "loving" people is fantastic and growing - and antibiotic drugs often don't knock it any more. A few weeks with "Peter Pan" (most visitors get disillusioned inside of a week), and your whole lives may be "never-never." - ONE WHO HAS BEEN AND REGRETS IT.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble, or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1967, Inc.

American League lead in a four-game series.

A split kept Eddie Stanky's crew on top, and now it's California's turn to take a shot at the leaders.

Sam McDowell softened the White Sox up Wednesday night with a six-hitter as Cleveland stopped Chicago 5-3. It was the only game scheduled in the American League and shaved the Sox' lead to 1 1/2 games over Detroit, two games over Minnesota and four over California.

In the only National League game played Wednesday, Mike Shannon cracked a two-run eighth-inning homer that lifted first-place St. Louis to a 4-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

The Angels bring a six-game winning streak into Chicago tonight and will have their new ace, George Brunet, ready to face the White Sox.

California spent much of May in the American League cellar but since June 7, Bill Rigney's team has spun off a 25-8 record and zoomed six spots in the standings.

Brunet, who dropped nine straight after winning the season's opener, is 6-2 during the hot streak and 7-11 over-all. Joel Horlen, 10-2, opposes the Angels.

Stanky used six pitchers trying to beat the Indians Wednesday, but Cleveland scored five runs in the first three innings and that was enough for McDowell, 6-7.

Sudden Sam, 6-7, threaded his way through trouble and relied on his strikeout pitch for the big out. He walked the bases-full in the fifth inning but then struck out Tom McCraw and Tommie Agee for two of his eight strikeouts.

Max Alvis ignited a two-run Indian rally in the first with a double and then cracked his 11th home run of the year in the second.

Tommy John, 8-6, was knocked out in the first inning and took the loss.

Shannon's eighth-inning shot brought the Cardinals from behind and enabled St. Louis to open a four-game bulge over Chicago in the National League race.

The Pirates had knocked out Dick Hughes and seized the lead in the top of the eighth on Gene Alley's two-run homer, a triple by Jerry May and Manny Mota's sacrifice fly.

But Orlando Cepeda opened the Cardinals' eighth with a single, knocking out Steve Blass, the Pittsburgh starter. Juan Pizarro retired Tim McCarver before Pete Mikkelsen relieved and Shannon cracked his sixth home run.

Shannon had singled across St. Louis' first run in the sixth as the Cardinals snapped the scoreless duel between Blass and Hughes.

Aaron Named Player of the Month

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hank
Aaron of the Atlanta Braves was named the National League's player of the month for June—but he had a close contest with Ron Santo.

The Braves' outfielder beat the Chicago Cubs' third baseman by a 17-14 vote of the 50 baseball writers and sportscasters on the panel.

Nicklaus 3
Shots Off of the Lead

By THOMAS A. REEDY
HOYLAK, England (AP)—
Thirty-seven years ago Bobby Jones finished the first round of the British Open Golf Championship here in wind and wet weather and was delighted with his 70. He was equally delighted with a total of 291 for 72 holes which contributed to his grand slam in 1930.

Today Jack Nicklaus, 27-year-old Columbus, Ohio professional, was somewhat disturbed about an opening round 71.

It was not good enough.

"I'm coming up with my putter," the blond bomber said.

The U. S. Open Champion, also defending his 1966 British Open crown, went off the sun-baked, 6,995-yard par-72 Hoylake links Wednesday and promptly repaired to the putting green.

Nicklaus' 71 was three shots off the 68 shot by leader Lionel Platts of England. Four players had 69s and eight, including Masters champion Gay Brewer of Dallas, Tex., shot 70s. At 71 were seven others besides Nick-laus.

Altogether 22 players broke par of 72 and seven more equalled it, a feat that has never happened to Hoylake.

Nicklaus said he thought low scoring would be hard to accomplish, but he said that before he went out for the first round. After that, he soaked up the sun, enjoyed the lack of wind, and worried only about the fineness of the game. That's why he wound up on a putting green when others were on their way to dinner.

"Putts I often make wouldn't go down," said Nicklaus.

He figured out he was either raising his putter or his head.

Open Tourney
Plan Rejected
in Britain

By GEOFFREY MILLER
MONTDORF - LES - BAINES,
Luxembourg (AP) — England might rebel against the International Lawn Tennis Federation, ruling body of the sport, and decide to hold open tennis championships without sanction.
The ILTF rejected Wednesday by 139 votes to 83 a British plan for open tournaments in which professionals and amateurs would compete for a two-year experimental period.

Herman David, chairman of the All-England Club which stages the Wimbledon championships, commented in London:
"If progress cannot be made by constitutional means, we shall have to think about achieving it by unconstitutional means."

That aroused speculation among the delegates to the ILTF annual meeting about what would happen if the big tennis powers decided to go it alone and hold open tournaments.

Dr. Giorgio de Stefani of Italy, newly elected president of the ILTF, declared "I cannot believe that any country would defy the ILTF and stage an open tournament. If it did, its players would be banned from competing in other ILTF countries. And then, what would we gain?"

In the vote Wednesday, the United States and Australia supported the British proposal for open tourneys, along with Austria, Canada, Jamaica, New Zealand, South Africa, Sweden and Switzerland.

Intrepid Is Favored to Retain Crown

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Barring a mishap, Intrepid, a sleek 12-meter sloop skippered by Bus Moshbacher, appears a clinch to defend the America's Cup against the challenge of Australia's Dame Pattie in September.

Intrepid posted her fourth straight victory Wednesday in the second round-robin series of the U.S. observation trials, defeating American Eagle.

Intrepid built a one - minute lead at the halfway mark of the 24.3-mile course and then pulled away to win by 3 minutes, 45 seconds.

Constellation, the 1964 America's Cup winner, squared her observation trial record 2-2 by defeating Columbia, the rebuilt 1958 winner, by 2:13. Columbia was left with a 2-3 mark.

Columbia was to meet American Eagle, loser of four straight, and Constellation was to go against Intrepid today.

Newcomer
From Hawaii
Leads Meet

SEATTLE (AP) — Scores of the country's top pay-as-you-play golfers headed for the bread-and-butter cutoff point here today with a veteran from Toledo, Ohio, and a newcomer from Hawaii leading the pack.

The field of 150 will be trimmed to the low 60 scorers, plus ties, after the second 18-hole round in the four-day, 72-hole National Amateur Public Links Championship.

Hubert Farmer, 42-year-old diemaker now in his 12th Publinks tourney, and Art Fujita, a school ring salesman from Honolulu, toured Seattle's tricky Jefferson Park Municipal Golf Course with identical two-under-par 35-33-68's to share the lead after Tuesday's opening 18 holes.

The only other par-buster on the heavily wooded, 6,329-yard par 36-34-70 layout was M. J.
Zimmerman, 20-year-old Dayton University student from Ketter-ing, Ohio. He shot a 37-32-69.

Dave Ojala, 1966 runnerup from Two Harbors, Minn., who had a 67 in practice Monday, wound up with a 39-39-78. Another early favorite, 1960 Publinks champ Verne Callison of Sacramento, Calif., shot 36-36-72.

Anderson Hopes for Better Luck

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Australia's Mal Anderson is hoping for a little better luck in the draw on the pro tennis tour.

"I've been on the tour only four weeks—and in the last three I've drawn Rosewall as my first-round opponent," Anderson said Wednesday night after being ousted from the $25, 000 U.S. Professional Grass Court Championships at Longwood.

Rosewall, top-seeded in the tournament, defeated his countryman 7-5, 6-8, 6-3 and advanced to the quarter-finals.

Clay Denied
California License

By BILL STALL
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—
Heavyweight boxer Cassius
Clay was denied Wednesday license to fight a bout in California to benefit poor children, Negro and white, in the South.

The California Athletic Commission voted 4-0 against Clay's application for a boxing license with one member abstaining.

Clay, sitting calmly and seriously before the commission had no immediate comment except to say that he would not try to hold the fight outside California.

Clay was stripped of his title
by the World Boxing Association and the powerful New York State Athletic Commission after he was convicted in a federal court in Houston, on a charge refusing to be drafted into the armed forces.

Clay faces a five-year pris-sentence if his appeal of the conviction is denied.

California's boxing rules deny any fighter a license if he has been convicted of a felony or even if he is out on bond pending an appeal.

Oakland boxing promoter Henry Winston said he had hoped to stage the fight in the Oakland Coliseum. Clay said he would pledge all his proceeds, except for $100, to a charitable organization to buy food for hungry children in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

At the same meeting, the commission deferred action on the license application of former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

Commissioners said they wanted to check Liston's status with the New York commission before deciding.

Well-Balanced Diet Important for Diabetics
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The book by Dolger and Seeman entitled "How to Live with Diabetes" which I recommended in an earlier column is now available in a paperback edition through the Upjohn Company, Kalamazoo, Mich. 49001.

Q—My husband has just learned that he is a diabetic. Is there a diabetic association where I may obtain more information about this disease?
A—Yes. Write to the American Diabetic Association, 18 East 48th St., New York, N.Y. 10017.

Q—Can a person with mild diabetes go on living a long time without any trouble?
A—The mild diabetes of older persons is no threat to life if, through proper treatment and testing, it is kept under control.

Q—Can a diabetic eat oranges, fried foods and use

WIN AT BRIDGE

Correct Play Insures Slam
By Oswald & James Jacoby
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here is a hand from the recent Eastern championships that is almost a double-dummy problem. In other words, try to make the slam after looking at all 52 cards.
We will give you a hint. You can't make it against a trump opening but you do get a queen of hearts lead.
When George Rowe of New York played it, the queen of hearts was led. George ducked in dummy. West shifted to a trump but the shift came too late to beat the contract.
George won in dummy, led a diamond to his ace and ruffed a diamond. Then he came back to his hand with the queen of clubs and ruffed a second diamond.
At this point George stopped to cash dummy's ace of hearts. Then he came to his hand again with the king of clubs in order to ruff his last diamond. Then he ruffed a heart; played out his last two trumps and made the last trick with dummy's ace of clubs.
Why would a trump opening have beaten the slam?
South would have no way to get back to his hand often enough to ruff three diamonds in dummy. He would have to rely on making four club tricks and as you can see the clubs don't break.

Could South have lost by his line of play?
Not as long as trumps broke 3-2 and clubs as good as 4-2, and the other suits reasonably—and, of course, as long as a trump wasn't opened.

What should I do?
A—There must be some reason other than diabetes for the restrictions on your diet. A diabetic diet should be a well-balanced diet designed to maintain your weight within the normal range for your height. This can be a very liberal diet with few, if any, restrictions of specific foods. The dosage of the tolbutamide (Orinase) is then carefully adjusted to keep your urine sugar-free.

Q—When one has diabetes is he ever cured or is the disease ever arrested to the point where he no longer needs medication? Does Orinase help one to lose weight or does the loss of weight come mainly from the diabetic diet?
A—Diabetes can be controlled but not cured. Many mild diabetics can keep their disease under control with diet alone. If you need to lose weight, as do most diabetics who are over 40, you must do it through your diet. The tolbutamide is given only to reduce your blood sugar level.

Q—I am planning a trip by train which takes seven or eight hours. Is it safe to carry my insulin that long without refrigeration?
A—Yes.

Q—After a test my doctor said my blood sugar level was high. He advised me not to use any sugar but gave me no medication. My urine shows no sugar. Am I a diabetic or not?
A—If you are over 40 and have an elevated blood sugar level confirmed by more than one test, you are mildly diabetic. Control of the disease in your case should be relatively easy but, nevertheless important.

Local Paper Mill Not for Now, But Stake Remains

Today's Wall Street Journal reports that U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers, Inc., will spend 100 million dollars on a paper mill to be built at Courtland in northwestern Alabama.

This, of course, was the project originally scheduled for McNab in our county - and it's a tough break for Hope and Arkansas.

Champion had optioned its mill site at McNab, merged with U.S. Plywood, and the consolidated company had paid for the McNab property before the Alabama alternative publicly appeared. It was one of those "breaks" in Big Business and Alabama simply lucked out over Arkansas.

Not entirely, however, U.S. Plywood - Champion has a $900,000 investment at McNab, and the report that the big manufacturer will build not one but two paper mills is given a good deal of credence. In the suspenseful closing moments - U.S. Plywood-Champion had a June 30 deadline on its Alabama options - it was reported to be merely a question which of two mills would be built first. However, since one would not be started until the other had been completed the effect is to exclude the McNab location from further speculation until 1970, the target date for completion of the Alabama project as given in today's Wall Street Journal.

Both Arkansas and Alabama have the water - the McNab location on Little River is generally regarded as one of the prime paper mill sites in the nation - and the Alabama location is on the Tennessee River. But if what I hear is correct Arkansas has more pulpwood timber available than Alabama.

Eventually the wind of fortune should blow a mill our way - but at the moment we are certainly becalmed.

Child's Body Recovered From Ditch

The child was reportedly living with her grandparents in Helena.

Redistrict Plan Suit Is Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - A suit attacking Arkansas' 1965 legislative reapportionment plan was filed today in Circuit Court in Pulaski County by Ed Faver Smith of Little Rock, who asked that multicounty districts be subdivided.

Smith's suit asked that the present reapportionment plan be declared unconstitutional and that the state Board of Apportionment be given reasonable time in which to adopt another.

The petition asks that the court subdivide multimember districts if the board fails to act.

The state's 1965 plan was formulated after the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" doctrine was applied to state legislatures.

"As that body (the legislature) is now constituted, the legislators from the large multimember districts are not responsive to the needs of the rural areas and smaller towns," Smith said in a statement.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is thinking of substituting civilians for U.S. soldiers in some nonfighting tasks in Vietnam.

McNamara indicated this might be one way of holding down on further additions to U. S. forces there, and of reducing a top-heavy ratio of support troops to combat men.

At a White House news conference Wednesday, the Pentagon chief linked a discussion of possible additional U. S. reinforcements with a new assertion that "we must use more effectively the personnel that are presently there."

Noting this line, a newsman asked whether his emphasis on more efficient use of forces meant "that you hope to make up what General Westmoreland has requested with less input of new troops from the States."

"I suspect, for example, that we may possibly be able to use civilian construction personnel to substitute for certain military construction units that might otherwise have been required," he said.

The bishop said the principal cause for closing "is the impossibility of obtaining an adequate number of faculty members to teach all essential classes."

The seminary has already stopped giving degrees. Students in the Little Rock Diocese will attend other seminaries.

Heiden, 78, of Little Rock, said Wednesday he would buy 80 acres of land in Newton County from former Gov. Orval Faubus and give the land to the state because "the state has been so good to me."

The land is part of a proposed Lost Valley state park.

Faubus closed the deal Wednesday and said his son, Ferrell Faubus, would draw up the necessary papers, Heiden said he would pay Faubus $6,400 plus $100 expenses for the property.

Faubus said recently in a letter to members of the state Publicity and Parks Commission that he wanted to sell the land to the Commission and that he would sell it for the $6,400 he said it cost him plus expenses.

"I feel like I want to do something for the state," said Heiden, a retired real estate broker. "I think the state can use it to an advantage. It will add to the park..."

Faubus' land includes the park's main tourist attraction - a waterfall, cliffs, large cave and passway.

Mrs. Norton, welfare director for Newton County, said she received a letter Wednesday in which Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock alleged that she used her office to coerce persons from using their "right to vote their conscience."

Mrs. Norton, who has held the Newton County job for eight years, said the letter also said her dismissal was effective Tuesday.

Mrs. Norton said she was qualified to hold the job and said she planned to appeal to the Merit System Council.

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) - On a fall day less than two years ago, a grief-stricken Mrs. Bertha Evans of Morrilton and her 12 children walked from a rural cemetery near here, The 46-year-old widow had just buried her husband who died of tuberculosis.

With eight children still living at home, Mrs. Evans was faced with earning the family a living even though she only had an elementary school education.

She was to receive a certificate for meritorious accomplishments today in Washington from John W. Gardner, secretary of the health, education and welfare.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Authorities are searching for a man who reportedly saved a Little Rock youth Wednesday from high waters in a drainage ditch in Little Rock.

Officers said Robert Cothran, 8, told them he was wading in the ditch when he slipped. Mrs. Ernest Willis of Little Rock said her 48-year-old husband saw the youth being washed down the ditch and went in after him.

Seminary at L.R. to Close

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Most Rev. Albert L. Fletcher said in a letter Wednesday to priests of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Little Rock, that St. John's Seminary at Little Rock will not open this fall.

Rev. Fletcher, Bishop of the Diocese, said in his letter that the Seminary would close down after 56 years because of financial problems, a lack of students and a shortage of vocations.

The bishop said the principal cause for closing "is the impossibility of obtaining an adequate number of faculty members to teach all essential classes."

The seminary has already stopped giving degrees. Students in the Little Rock Diocese will attend other seminaries.

U.S. Sending 25,000 GIs to Vietnam

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says he's "not sure how many" more U.S. troops must be sent to Vietnam, but top military officers say privately at least 25,000 are required just to regain lost momentum.

McNamara, back from his ninth trip to Vietnam, told President Johnson Wednesday more Americans must be dispatched to the war-torn Southeast Asian nation. He said there's no need to call up reserves, however.

The subject was expected to be at the top of the list again today at a meeting of the National Security Council. Expected to join that session is Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. troops in Vietnam, who flew into Washington Wednesday night after attending his mother's funeral in Columbia, S.C.

He said on arrival that "If we have additional men, the result would be a greater pressure being brought to bear on the enemy."

Military officers contend the U.S. war effort has lost momentum in recent weeks due to troop shifts toward Vietnam's so-called demilitarized zone. They say privately the manpower decisions now under consideration at the White House will determine whether the war's progress moves at its current pace, slows or picks up.

McNamara told newsmen Wednesday 20,000 to 30,000 more men probably will be sent to Vietnam in the next 90 days as part of previously determined

$900,000 Invested on Little River

The Champion Papers Division of the U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers Inc. announced plans Wednesday for a $100 million mill at Courtland, Ala. The investment includes pulp and paper mill and adjoining timberland.

The announcement was made by company officials in New York and Courtland, Alabama.

Thus Hempstead County and area lost its chance for the mill. Champion had purchased a site on Little River and at one time it was first choice for a paper mill. According to Courthouse records Champion investment in the County is just shy of $900,000.

Construction of the Alabama mill will be on an 1,800 tract on the Tennessee River and begins next year. It will employ 400 persons and have a daily production capacity of 500 tons of pulp, of which 275 tons will be converted into paper on the site.

Roy J. Sund, senior vice president of the U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers, said the mill will eventually be expanded. Completion is expected in 1970.

Mr. Sund notified local officials of the Southwest Arkansas Water District of the company's choice last night.

A local spokesman for the Water District said several other fine prospects for plants had already been contacted. He was very optimistic about locating a plant in the area in the near future.

From Decatur, Ala. Winfred Turner, State Editor of the Decatur Daily, said it was the general feeling that a $400 million nuclear plant being erected in that section of Alabama was a factor in picking the Courtland site.

Mr. Turner said he asked Mr. Sund what plans the company had for the Arkansas site and received this reply, "It's a darn good site and we hope to expand soon."

Convicts in Oregon Will Return

BAKER, Ore. (AP) - Four inmates who escaped from Tucker Prison Farm in January waived extradition in Baker County Circuit Court Wednesday and said they would go back to Arkansas.

The four men said they felt they would receive fair treatment in Arkansas since their story has been told. They were arrested here and told authorities they escaped from Tucker because of cruel punishment and excessive brutality at the prison.

Richard Emory, 38, Jimmie Pike, 36, James Stephens, 23, and Calvin Smith, 17, will be delivered to Arkansas authorities soon.

An Oregon Circuit Court Judge refused, in May, to return the inmates to Tucker and ruled they could go free. He based his decision on the inmates' description of life at Tucker.

The Baker County District Attorney appealed the decision to the Oregon Supreme Court but the issue is now dead.

Pentagon Takes Issue With Generals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon, taking issue with some retired military leaders, says the United States has enough nuclear weapons to discourage any attack on this country.

Among the group contending the Soviet Union is gaining military superiority are Air Force Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, who for 12 years headed the intercontinental ballistic missile development program; Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, former commander of the Atlantic Fleet; Dr. Edward Teller, the nuclear scientist who often is referred to as father of the hydrogen bomb, also is in the group.

They said evidence indicates "the Soviet Union succeeding in its massive drive toward strategic military superiority and that the United States is cooperating in this effort by slowing down its side of the arms race."

The group said in a report released Monday the United States will lose its lead this year over the Soviet Union in deliverable nuclear power.

They said that by 1971, "it appears a massive megatonnage gap will have developed." This refers to the atomic force of strategic weapons. One megaton equals one million tons of TNT.

The Pentagon, asked to comment, said it wouldn't discuss megatonnage figures because they are classified. But it did maintain that numbers of weapons and size of warheads alone "are a very incomplete indicator of military strength."

"True military capability results from numbers of weapons that are accurate and reliable, that can survive an enemy attack and that can penetrate enemy defenses," the Defense Department said. "The United States has and will continue to have more than enough of such weapons to convince any enemy that an attack on this country would be suicidal."

Germany to Keep NATO Pledge

BONN, West Germany (AP) — West Germany will be able to keep up its commitment to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization even if it cuts its army, Foreign Minister Willy Brandt said Monday.

But he stressed that so far the government has decided only to prune the defense budget, not to scale down the army. According to reliable estimates, however, the 1968 defense slash of $500 million will result in a reduction of 40,000-60,000 troops from the 461,000-man army.

Brandt said that "fighting power is not dependent on numbers alone." He gave as an example the U.S. decision to pull 35,000 troops out of West Germany while claiming that fighting power would not be impaired.

Irked Moslems Seek Censure of Israel

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Angry Moslem diplomats worked on a resolution today to censure Israel for refusing to rescind its annexation of the Old City of Jerusalem.

The censure move led by Pakistani Ambassador Agha Shahi overshadowed intense behind-the-scenes negotiations on other possible resolutions as the General Assembly prepared to resume its emergency session on the Middle East this afternoon after a one-week recess.

No agreement appeared near on any proposal to break the assembly's tight deadlock on withdrawal of Israeli troops from the territories of Egypt, Syria and Jordan occupied during the June war.

Israel touched off the censure move Tuesday by informing Secretary-General U Thant that it was going ahead with measures to unify the Israeli and former Jordanian sectors of Jerusalem despite the assembly resolution July 4 calling on Israel to rescind all measures which would "alter the status of Jerusalem."

Israel has contended that its measures simply provide for administrative unity and could not be correctly described as annexation of the Old City.

Whatever the term, Foreign Minister Abba Eban made clear to Thant that Israel had no intention of canceling the comprehensive plans already in motion for health services, social welfare, education and protection of the holy places in the Arab sector.

The resolution July 4 was sponsored by Pakistan and was adopted 99-0 with 20 abstentions. The United States abstained, although the Johnson administration had urged Israel not to annex the Old City.

The assembly can condemn or censure Israel, but only the U.N. Security Council can impose penalties. One proposal under consideration was to have the assembly ask the council to implement the July 4 resolution.

On the questions of Israeli troop withdrawals from Arab territory and future steps to stabilize the Middle East, the assembly remained divided, despite numerous efforts during the week's recess to find a compromise formula.

One group, including the Arabs, the Soviet bloc and some so-called nonaligned countries, insisted that the assembly must call for the withdrawal of Israeli troops without any conditions attached.

Another group, including the United States, the Latin Americans and most of the Western powers, held that the withdrawal must be linked to an end to the state of war which the Arabs have maintained against Israel since 1948.

In the Middle East, Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, chief of the U.N. Palestine Truce Organization, was expected in Cairo today to discuss the stationing of U.N. military observers along the Suez Canal cease-fire line between Egypt and Israel.

Contestant Has Benefit of Experience

By TOMMY YATES
Associated Press Writer
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Carol Diane Chowning of Magnolia will have more than good looks, a pleasing personality and a shapely figure going for her when she attempts to fulfill the dream she's had since she was five years old.

The 19-year-old, blue-eyed blonde, who is representing Magnolia in the annual Miss Arkansas Pageant here, will have the benefit of her mother's experience.

Her mother, Mrs. Bob Chowning, the former Katy Sisk, competed in the 1945 Miss Arkansas Pageant as Miss Wynne.

That, pageant officials believe, makes Diane the first second-generation Miss Arkansas contestant.

Preliminary competition for the right to represent Arkansas in the Miss America Pageant doesn't begin here until Wednesday, but Diane and 52 other contestants checked in Monday for registration, orientation and rehearsals.

Mrs. Chowning was on hand. "She's always there if I have a question to ask," said Diane. "But she leaves it up to me to approach her. And sometimes I have quite a few questions."

Diane has had her sights set on the Miss Arkansas title since she was five. That's when she was a flower girl in a Miss Forrester City pageant.

Since then, she has blossomed into a full beauty queen, winning the Miss Teen-Age Arkansas crown and advancing to the finals of the Miss Teen-Age America pageant in 1963. She also won the Miss Congeniality award at the National Cotton Queen contest at Blytheville.

Future Could See Fibers for Building

By ROY MALONE

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Sky-scrapers five times as high as the Empire State Building. Suspension bridges twice as long as today's longest. Drastic new shapes for aircraft.

These are the visualizations of researchers who for two years have been taking a close look at the way man-made fibers may be joined together to produce materials stronger and lighter than any natural material, including aluminum.

Groundwork research in the field of composite materials is being done by scientists from Washington University and the Monsanto Co. in St. Louis.

The close look is made possible by a new electron scanning microscope able to magnify 200,000 times. With the $85,000 instrument, researchers scan fractured composites to see what broke first—the fiber or the bonding compound, the matrix.

The scanning microscope can look at samples in depth and can be used to take pictures. The depth of field advantage makes it superior to conventional microscopes with a short field of focus.

Some of the fibers being studied are made of carbon, boron, silicon carbide, glass, steel and silicon nitride.

Initial research by the Air Force indicates the composites have three to five times the stiffness and strength of ordinary structural materials, yet are one-third the weight.

The best known composite, made of glass fibers and plastics, is used for sports equipment, boats and car bodies.

"Suspension bridges twice as long as today's longest and sky-scrapers five times as high as the Empire State would technically be possible," says Dr. John Calfee, Monsanto scientist in charge of the research program.

Obvious military advantages would be aircraft made of lightweight composites that would have 50 per cent more range or double the payload capacity, even with existing engines and fuels.

Dr. Stephen Tsai, Washington University professor in charge of the research laboratory, says "weight is the inescapable factor. We need strength to carry weight and stiffness to prevent collapse."

Tsai predicts the new materials will be costly. He says: "It all boils down to cost effectiveness. For a spacecraft to Mars it will be worth spending $4,000 a pound on materials."

"For regular aircraft, substituting a boron plastic for aluminum, the cost for the airframe might be $200 a pound,"

New Cigarette Filter 70% Effective

NEW YORK (AP)—Columbia University said today it has been given a controlling interest in a new cigarette filter which it says sharply reduces tar and nicotine in tobacco smoke but lets the tobacco flavor through.

The university said it would make the filter available immediately throughout the world in an attempt to help smokers help themselves by reducing by two-thirds the tar and nicotine they inhale.

Noting that cigarette consumption has risen in the United States despite warnings it presented a health hazard, Dr. Grayson Kirk, Columbia president, said he hoped the new filter might lead to a significant lessening of what he called one of the world's major health problems.

Robert L. Strickman, a New Jersey chemist, developed the filter after years of experimenting in his home laboratory. He gave the patent rights to Columbia.

As word of the development spread through the financial community Wednesday, tobacco stocks on the New York Stock Exchange rose sharply with closing prices up as much as $3.50.

The filter—a tasteless, white crystalline synthetic—is said to have no effect on the taste of a cigarette and to cost no more than filters now in use. Strickman claims it cuts the intake of tar and nicotine by more than two-thirds.

However, no absolute claim is made that the new filter will reduce the incidence of cancer and other diseases. Columbia is known to be hopeful of such a result and more medical tests are planned.

Strickman, 56, is president of Allied Testing and Research Laboratories in Hillsdale, N.J. He said he pursued development of the filter because both of his parents died of cancer and he felt cigarettes were a cancer-causing agent.

In 1964, a U.S. Surgeon General's advisory committee found cigarette smoke a "health hazard" and the major cause of lung cancer among smokers.

In Washington Wednesday, John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare recommended that cigarette manufacturers be forced to give consumers more specific warnings about the hazards of their products.

He said in a new report to Congress that there is more evidence now to strengthen the 1964 findings. "To say that smoking 'may be hazardous' is to ignore the overwhelming evidence that cigarette smoking is clearly hazardous to health," he said.

The Surgeon General's office assembled the updated report on health hazards based on the research of others and said it did not represent new research done by federal agencies.

Strickman said Wednesday that he tried to approach tobacco companies directly with his invention but was never able "to get beyond the front door." Subsequently, he said, he offered the filter to Columbia because its medical school was the "best in the world, and I knew many people there." He said he gave the university all the rights except for a small percentage which he retained himself.

He said his filter works on a different principle than the conventional filters which merely trap tars and other solid matter.

Violence Hits Newark, New Jersey

By MICHAEL J. SNIFFEN

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Raining Negroes besieged a police station and demonstrated at City Hall late Wednesday and early today after a Negro taxi cab driver was arrested.

Rocks and firebombs were hurled at the police station.

A chanting, jeering crowd estimated by police at 200 persons assembled at the 4th Precinct police station in a predominantly Negro area about a mile west of downtown then moved downtown before police dispersed the group.

It was the second recent outburst in this sprawling city in the metropolitan New York area. Nineteen persons, nine of them policemen, were hurt early Saturday during a battle involving Black Muslims on the street separating Newark and East Orange.

Newark Police Director Dominick Spina said police did not battle any groups Wednesday night, but did disperse a crowd which assembled at City Hall. "It was an isolated incident," he said of the arrest, "and teenagers gathered and were incited—we don't know who incited them."

A spokesman for Newark Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio said there was no riot and incidents of looting in the area were unrelated.

Donald Malafronte, an aide to Addonizio, said a crowd gathered at the police station after a man identified as John W. Smith was taken into custody. Malafronte said the man's taxi cab had been stopped because it was following closely behind a police car.

Malafronte said the crowd was composed mainly of Negro taxi drivers at first.

Spina said the crowd apparently collected because of a rumor the arrested man had been killed.

Policemen remained inside while stones, bricks and bottles pelted the station. Spina and representatives of the city's anti-poverty agency talked to the group and answered questions.

Sending Planes to Congo Lost LBJ Ground

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's dispatch of three U. S. planes to the Congo may have cost him political ground he gained in following a cautious course in the Middle East crisis.

After the quick Israeli victory over the Arabs there was demonstrable satisfaction in the country that the President had prevented any indirect American involvement in the war.

But Johnson's unheralded action in dispatching transport planes and about 150 men to the rebellion-torn Congo in response to a request by President Joseph D. Mobutu soured the congenial atmosphere, at least in Congress.

Critics said Johnson acted precipitously to poke into the domestic affairs of a country where the United States had no vital interests and where it was not its primary responsibility to keep the peace.

One result, in the opinion of influential members of Congress, could be a slow-down in any executive move at this time to enlarge the American military commitment in Vietnam.

They argue that Johnson, always keenly aware of the trend of congressional and public opinion, can only conclude that a great number of Americans are overly tired of having the United States police the world. This attitude could be re-

Dark Picture of Increase in Taxes

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional critics paint a dark picture of increased taxes, price-wage controls and mobilization of reserves if President Johnson intensifies the Vietnam war.

The doves are telling Johnson through Senate and House speeches that he also will be risking World War III if he pours in a huge complement of ground forces and expands the bombing of North Vietnam.

The hawks, diverted at the moment by the alarms of possible American involvement in African conflicts, are otherwise relatively silent while awaiting Johnson's decision after he confers with Gen. William C. Westmoreland and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. Both just returned from Vietnam.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen seemed to voice the general view of hawks that if Westmoreland wants more troops, he ought to have what he needs.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, who wants a renewed effort to reduce the present level of U.S. involvement in the Asian war, cited the possible domestic effects of expanding the conflict.

Mansfield told the Senate Tuesday that a third world war may be "already incubating in the ever-deepening and expanding struggle in Southeast Asia." He said every escalation thus far had failed to bring the conflict nearer an end.

"Before we take another significant step deeper into Vietnam," he said, "it is to be hoped that we will have asked ourselves at what point we intend to increase taxes, apply the wage and price controls, tighten the draft exemptions, call up the reserves and make the countless other adjustments in our national life which are implicit in further extensions of the American involvement."

Mansfield's estimate that Vietnam expenditures will rise to $25 billion yearly brought a prediction from Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Rt., that an increase of 18 to 20 per cent in income taxes may be in the offing.

An effort by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to placate senators who vigorously protested Johnson's dispatch of three U.S. transport planes to help the Congo government appeared to have made little headway.

Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services Committee, who said it was immoral to send one American serviceman to the Congo, said after hearing Rusk in a closed session that he hadn't changed his opinions about anything.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., head of the Foreign Relations Africa subcommittee, said the President acted "without clear legal authority." He said, however, he did not share the view of other critics that the action might trigger a Vietnam-type involvement in Africa.

Foreign Relations Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said later he and others told Rusk that Congress wants a much greater voice—not just post-decision consultation—in deciding whether U.S. military forces should be ordered to new world trouble spots.

St. John People Called Very Warm

ST. JOHN, N.B. (AP) — Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth, on a 13-day visit to Canada's Atlantic provinces, says she has found the people of St. John "very warm."

The queen mother, 67, last visited the Atlantic provinces in 1939 during a cross-Canada tour with her late husband, King George VI.

flected in public reaction against any spectacular move to intensify the Vietnam war by substantially increasing troop commitments or expanding the bombing.

The expectation in Congress is that Johnson will move only in stages to give Gen. William C. Westmoreland more of the troops the general says he needs and that there will be no perceptible change in bombing patterns for the time being.

Senatorial supporters of the President's Vietnam course joined his critics in making it clear they want no more Vietnam by criticizing his decision to give even token help to Mobutu in his fight with rebels and white mercenaries.

This widespread concern was translated into action Wednesday when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee tentatively blocked $120 million out of the $600 million military aid program proposed by Johnson.

Koreans Against Recent Elections

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The South Korean National Assembly convened today amid noisy demonstrations against the June 8 elections that decided the makeup of the 175-man body. About 4,000 riot police kept the protesters away from the assembly hall.

President Chung Hee Park has said that election irregularities by his ruling party were confined to a limited number of districts. He has purged eight lawmakers elected to the assembly from his own Democratic Republican party in connection with the rigging.

Indian Wants U.S. Wheat in Canal

CAIRO (AP) — India has asked Egyptian authorities to unload 27,000 tons of U.S. wheat stranded in the Suez Canal with a view to transporting it to famine-threatened India by other means, the newspaper Al-Ahram reported today.

The wheat is aboard the American Freighter Observer. The canal is blocked by Egyptian ships sunk in it during the Arab-Israeli war.

A representative from the Indian Embassy in Cairo will go soon to Ismailia, on the canal, to arrange for transport of the wheat to India, Al-Ahram said. It gave no hint of how the wheat might be shipped.

Primitive Bows Used by Indians

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Yelling war cries, a mob of half naked men and women tribespeople armed with primitive bows and arrows raided a factory 150 miles northwest of Calcutta Tuesday. Two were killed and 30 injured by police gunfire before they were driven off.

The clash near Dhanab followed a dispute over the dismissal of some of the factory workers, most of whom are aboriginals and members of a pro-Peking union.

Charm Course for the Men in Japan

By ROBERT LIU

TOKYO (AP) — Twice a week a group of budding Japanese executives hustle into a modern, three-story building off Tokyo's Ginza and go through a ritual.

They smile into mirrors, walk in circles, exercise, light and snuff out cigarettes or squat under sun lamps. Then they climb into mud, lemon or milk baths and get massaged. Their hair is fixed and their fingernails manicured.

For a nation that has traditionally upheld the Samurai spirit of masculine roughness, all this may appear somewhat effeminate.

But to the Yamano beauty salon, it's all part of a popular charm course for men.

Explains the general manager, Takaaki Yamano: "We teach them that charm can get them a promotion from their boss or, if they work hard enough, possibly a girl."

"Japanese men don't have what you could call a charming walk. They slouch, waddle or shuffle."

"They also don't have any manners."

"They shove women, and they light cigarettes by striking matches outward instead of toward themselves."

"They don't even know how to smile."

"They smile with their mouths, leaving their eyes as dead as those of canned fish."

The salon tries to correct all this.

Its instructions for a correct smile: Cover the lower half of your face with a handkerchief and smile into a mirror until you develop "smiling eyes."

Just to make sure that students get a chance to develop their charms effectively, Yamano's instructors are all women.

"We believe that if you can charm any of them, you can charm anyone," explains Yamano. What about the sun lamps, baths and other beautification treatments?

"A man is much more charming if he has a he-man sun tan, a clean skin, and is properly groomed," explains Yamano. A three-month course costs $117.

Ship Sunk In 1707 Is Found

LONDON (AP) — Sunken bulion and ship's cannon found by divers off the southwest tip of England have stirred hope that the treasure-laden ship Association, which went down in 1707, soon might be located.

The flagship of Adm. Sir Cloudesley Shovell's fleet may have been carrying plate, gold and bullion worth more than $5.6 million.

Two coins and one bronze cannon were brought to the surface by divers to see if they could be traced to the Association, which sank in a storm as it returned from a foreign mission.

Mother and Son Are Doing Fine

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Grant Gallagher "is doing very nicely," his elated father said today. And so is "mom" heiress Gamble Benedict Gallagher.

The 7-pound, 8½-ounce boy, born Tuesday night at St. Luke's Hospital, is the third son for the former New York socialite. Her first marriage to her former chauffeur, Andre Porumbanu, ended in an annulment in 1964.

But for Thomas F. Gallagher, 34, a state police inspector who also had been married once before, it is the first son.

The Gallaghers were married at nearby Clinton two years ago this month in a church ceremony attended by 15 family members and close friends. Gamble then was 24.

We care

Good potato, but we won't use it

This is a NO. 1 grade potato.
But we won't use it for Jane Parker Potato Chips because it measures more than 4 inches in diameter. We have minimum and maximum sizes to insure the best chips... the best eating.

But size isn't the only thing we're fussy about. We'll use only certain varieties of potatoes. There are 20 or more varieties we wouldn't think of using... they just don't make good chips.

We're careful about potato sugar content. It must be low to produce chips of uniform color. We're fussy too about crispness, thickness and lots of other things.

This may seem like an awful lot of fussing, but that's the way we are about all Jane Parker products... about all the products we make.

When you think about it, shouldn't fussy A&P be your store?
